III. New Business

Deputy Chief Jamison opened the meeting with introductions and statement of topics that would be covered: No allegations for March 2021, Update on Critical Incident Review Procedures, Discussion regarding current CPAG member attendance requirements, and other questions brought up recently.

Total Use of Force Incidents: 8
Total Number of Officers Involved: 12
1 Demeanor complaint involving 1 officer
0 Allegations of misconduct

Captains Dan Black and Tim Clements presented an overview of Use of Force incidents for March 2021. Tony Martin demonstrated a few defensive tactics – control holds on Carrie Dungan.

Question and answer session and group discussion. A preview of our new recruiting video was presented. Chief Zuidema asked for feedback from the group. Positive comments were given. Group members liked the diversity in race and age in the video.

Carrie gave an overview of our marketing campaign “What’s your Why”. She will send a presentation to the group that the LPD submitted to Council last year with a breakdown on numbers and man hours associated with ECO/TDO.

Deputy Chief Jamison will send out a questionnaire to the group regarding: members of CPAG names on webpage; introduce group members to officers; move meetings to LPD; make this group a review board with volunteers; training; and non-disclosure agreement.

Closing remarks from Chief Zuidema. Command Staff thanked members for attending.

IV. Adjournment

Deputy Chief Jamison adjourned the meeting at 6:15 p.m.
